FAST BALL CLUB WILL PLAY HERE

"MARYVILLE ATHLETIC CLUB" TO HAVE SALARIED TEAM.

FIRST GAME IS JUNE 26

St. Joseph Stockyards Nine Will Appear During Summer in M. A. C. Uniforms.

Maryville is to have a real baseball team composed of salaried players. A group of Maryville business men have formed the Maryville Athletic Club, which will sponsor the nine. The first game will be played here at the Fair Grounds, Sunday, June 26, with a team from Creston, Iowa.

The Maryville team will be what is now the Stockyards Team of St. Joseph. Minor changes may be made but the line-up will be practically the same. The best of the local players may break into the game, if they are fast enough.

The Stockyards nine has no diamond in St. Joseph, and all their games must be played in other towns. Frank Green, a former Maryville resident, is manager of the team and has offered to have his club play here this summer as a salaried Maryville team. They will play on a percentage basis, sixty per cent if they win and forty when they lose. The business men who have agreed to back the team guarantee only the visiting team's expenses.

The Stockyards nine has always been considered one of the fastest semi-pro aggregations in North Missouri. Their record this year is good assuring Maryville fans of a good brand of baseball for the summer. Plans are being made by the local boosters to schedule games with such towns as Shenandoah, Red Oak, Clarinda and the fastest teams in this section.

MARYVILLE SHRINERS BACK FROM DES MOINES CONCLAVE

Travelers Can Tell When State Line Is Crossed by the Difference in Roads, They Report.

The Maryville Shriners who attended the forty-seventh annual conclave of the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Des Moines, returned home yesterday and this morning. It is estimated that more than 50,000 Shriners were in Des Moines during the three-day conclave.

Several of the Shriners from here made the trip in cars. They reported the Iowa roads in very good condition and saw a number of road gangs working on the roads. They said they could tell by the roads when they were in Missouri. Even the weeds along the roads in Iowa are cut.

The Remus car driven by Charles F. Remus and containing Mrs. Remus and Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Reuillard met with an accident on the trip to Des Moines Monday afternoon. In going up a steep hill, the breaks refused to work when changing gears, and the car going backward, was turned into the bank at the side of the road and was turned over. No one was hurt and there was very little damage to the car.

SUPREME COURT SECRETS ARE HELD INVIOLABLE

Government Wins Victory in Cases of Men Who "Cleaned Up" in Wall Street Speculations.

Washington, June 17.—The government today won a notable victory in its efforts to protect the inviolability of secrets of the United States Supreme Court, when the Justice Siddons dismissed the demurrers that had been filed to the indictment of Ashton Embry, Millard Mayer and Barnett Moses and ordered that these cases go to trial on their merit. They were three of four men were indicted for conspiracy against the United States in obtaining advance information on important supreme court decisions and using the information thus obtained for Wall Street speculation.

TWO INJURED BADLY WHEN CAR PLUNGES OVER BRIDGE

Joseph Borgman, Clyde, and Raymond Comer, Ravenwood Are Injured Internally.

Joseph Borgman of Clyde and Raymond Comer of Ravenwood were badly injured about 10:30 o'clock last night when a car in which they were riding became unguidable and went over the east end of the Borgman bridge just south of Clyde. Borgman suffered severe internal injuries and was taken to his home close by. Comer was the less injured of the two but may have slight internal injuries. He was taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Comer of Ravenwood.

Comer, who is about 25 years old, was driving to Clyde in a car belonging to John Allen, for whom he works. The steering gear and brakes were in bad condition and on arriving at the bridge he was afraid to drive across but Borgman, who lives near, appeared on the scene and offered to do the driving. The car knocked off a banister and plunged fifteen feet into the ditch. Borgman was under the steering wheel and suffered injuries to his back and stomach. He is about 26 years of age and is the son of Mrs. Anna Borgman of Clyde.

The car was badly damaged.

FARMERS CONSIGN 50,921 POUNDS OF WOOL TO POOL

Nodaway's 1920 Quota Is Already Exceeded—Total May Be 1,000,000 Pounds.

Seventy-seven wool growers from the vicinity sent 26,723 pounds of wool to the Northwest Missouri wool pool at St. Joseph in two cars loaded here this week. Fifty-eight farmers living in the east part of the county consigned 24,198 pounds in a car loaded at Ravenwood. The total of the shipments was 50,921 pounds, about 10,000 pounds more than was shipped to the pool last year, when cars were loaded at Maryville and Barnard.

John McDaniel, manager of the pool, reports that there is now 307,000 pounds of wool in the warehouse, with four cars in transit. Based on estimates from counties from which shipments are yet to be received, Manager McDaniel thinks it is possible that the pool may reach 1,000,000 pounds. The total last year was 350,000 pounds.

A meeting of wool growers will be held at Sheridan next Monday night to consider the advisability of loading another car there. The meeting was called at the request of William Allyn. It includes wool growers from the northeast part of Nodaway county and the northwest part of Worth.

HYDE IGNORES REFERENDUM

THE GOVERNOR ANNOUNCES NEW CIRCUIT JUDGES YESTERDAY

DAWSON APPOINTED HERE

Republicans Issued a Threat—Means No Circuit Court for 18 Months, They Say.

Although he had received notice from Democratic state committee that referendum petitions will be filed Saturday against the judicial gerrymander bill, Governor Hyde yesterday announced the appointment of circuit judges out in the state under the bill.

Judge John M. Dawson was appointed for the first district composed of Nodaway, Atchison, Holt and Andrew counties. The old district was Nodaway, Atchison, Worth and Gentry counties.

The governor indicated that he would make an effort to knock out the referendum on the judicial gerrymander. He declared the signatures to the referendum had been obtained by fraud. It is known that many petitions were circulated by Republicans and thousands of Republicans signed them.

According to a report, a court injuction is to be served upon Secretary of State Becker, restraining him from accepting the petitions, on the theory that a large percentage of the signatures were obtained by fraud. It is contended that circulators of the petitions obtained large numbers of signatures by misrepresenting the purposes of the referendum. In Kansas City, for example, according to the report, hundreds of negroes were induced to sign when informed that the object was to induce the price of whiskey $1 a quart.

Referendum Bodes Chaos?

"They will be no circuit courts in Missouri the next eighteen months if this referendum goes through," Representative Elmer of Dent County, author of the two judicial bills, said tonight. "Democrats have come asking me to introduce a bill at this session to put back the time and place of holding courts to the old law schedule. I told them: 'No, you got yourselves into this by your referendum, now get yourselves out.'"

Attention was called today to the condition "almost of anarchy" which is feared from a successful referendum of the judicial redistricting bill. The referendum has been invoked only against the bill creating the new circuits, but nothing done by the Democratic organization to hold up a companion bill setting the time and place of holding court in the new districts. Many of the districts overlap. The result will be that if the circuit judges hold over under the old law, the second bill will require them to hold court in towns in other districts.

May Force Legislature to Act.

The legislature is expected to act should the judicial referendum be successful. Either the judicial redistricting bill, which would require the circulation of more petitions, must be re-enacted, or the legislature must repeal the companion bill and re-enact the present law as to time and places of holding court.

Lawyers are wondering whether the circuit courts of the state will be compelled to quit business Monday, when the new laws go into effect, until the supreme court or the legislature straightens out the complex situation caused by the referendum.

CAN'T CUT CAPITOL BONDS TAX

Barrett Says Legislature Has No Authority to Fix 1-Cent Levy

Jefferson City, June 17—In response to inquiries from members of the legislature, Attorney General Barrett stated today that the legislature did not have authority to reduce the state tax on the bonds for the new capitol from 2 cents on the $100 valuation to 1 cent, as has been suggested by Governor Hyde. In the opinion of the attorney general the constitutional amendment under which 3½ million dollars of bonds were voted by the people for building a new state capitol, fixes the tax definitely at 2 cents until the bonds have matured and no act of the legislature can change that levy.

ENGLAND ASKS U. S. TO STOP ARMS SHIPMENTS

New Raids in London Are Attributed to Sinn Feiners—Railway Traffic at Standstill.

London, June 17—Great Britain will address a friendly note to America requesting that the closest watch be maintained in the future to prevent contraband shipment of arms and munitions to Ireland for use against the crown forces by the Republicans it was learned from a high source here today.

London, June 17—Many raids, in which telegraph and telephone wires were cut and railroad property destroyed, were made here today. Scotland yard detectives attributed them to Sinn Feiners.

Seven men, all alleged to be Irish Republican sympathizers, were arrested at Bromley. The police have thrown out a dragnet forty miles past London in an effort to round up the depredators. Railway traffic in the London district already crippled by the coal strike was brought to a virtual stand still by the burning of signal boxes.

SEARCHING PARIES FIND NO TRACES

DISAPPEARANCE OF MRS. ALBERT BATCHER STILL A MYSTERY.

RIVER YIELDS NO CLUE

Searchers Start From Parnell and Work Toward Others From Ravenwood and Sheridan.

Mystery still surrounds the disappearance Wednesday night of Mrs. Albert Batcher of Parnell whose shoes were found in an orchard west of the town and whose tracks leading to the bank of the Platte river led to the belief that her body might be found there.

After three times dredging the Platte river, the last time this morning, when fully two miles were dredged a searching club was organized. Line rings were rung this morning from the telephone offices at Parnell, Orrsburg, Sheridan and Ravenwood, and searching clubs were formed. Practically every business house in Parnell was closed today that the people might join in the search. Those in the vicinity of Parnell were asked to meet at the park between 1 and 2 o'clock when fifty people were present and started out shortly after 2 o'clock to meet clubs from Sheridan and Ravenwood with every part of the country in those vicinities to be combed over.

Many Parnell residents, including the family of the missing woman, have been searching since the alarm was given at 2 o'clock Thursday morning, when it was discovered that she had left the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Echterling. No clues have been found and no one has reported seeing her. When the search first started yesterday, several reports were received, but all proved false.

Mrs. Batcher is the wife of Albert Batcher of Churdan, Ia. Her mind became unbalanced several weeks ago when she gave birth to a child and was taken to a sanitarium in St. Joseph for treatment. She failed to improve, and the husband decided to take her home and while en route there stopped at the home of her parents in Parnell for several days.

Wednesday night, Mrs. Batcher complained of not feeling well and asked to sit by the window. As soon as her husband fell asleep, she climbed out of the window and supposedly went to the river as footprints were traced that far.

FIND STOLEN MAIL HIDDEN IN A TREE

BURLIGTON JUNCTION BOYS DISCOVER ROBBERS CACHE.

LETTERS FROM MARYVILLE

Believed to Have Been Taken From Station Platform Under Cover of Darkness.

A considerable quantity of first class mail, most of it postmarked at Maryville, and destined to points south of Burlington Junction on the Burlington railway, was found cached in Nicholas park, Tuesday by Roy Ferguson and Forrest Woods, who were playing there according to the Burlington Junction Post.

The boys first found the wrapper of a package, addresses to Miss Mary Dollison of this place. Their curiosity was aroused, and upon looking around they found several letters, all of which had been opened, tucked away in the hollow of a tree. They brought the mail to the ice plant, and its find was reported by Lon Monk to Postmaster Ferguson. The latter, in company with Chas. Dewyre, went back to the park, accompanied by the boys.

The youngsters began poking in the ashes resulting from a bonfire near where the mail had been found, when they discovered another letter or two in the ashes. Postmaster Ferguson then took a hand and unearthed a large package of first class mail that had been buried in a bundle under the ashes. Most of the mail was bound south, although one bunch of it was addresses to patrons of the Burlington Junction post office. Practically all of it was postmarked at Maryville, bearing the date of May 23.

The mail is believed to have been sent over on No. 3, Wabash passenger train due here at 8:11 p. m. on May 23, and taken from the station platform under cover of darkness. Transfer mail is not handled by the local post office, but is kept at the station until the Burlington trains pick it up. The mail will be marked 'mutilated' by Postmaster Ferguson and dispatched to the addresses.

VISITOR SAYS INSURANCE RATES ARE HIGHER HERE

Fire Insurance rates are higher in Maryville than they are in towns of the same class with the same fire protection, says H. M. Gallagher of Kansas City, a representative of the Bankers' Inter-Insurance Alliance and the Western Reciprocal Underwriters. They are even higher than in some towns with little or no fire protection, he declares.

Mr. Gallagher could not cite figures from the other towns, but thought the rates fixed on some Maryville buildings by the Missouri Inspection Bureau were excessive.

"However, many of the buildings here are old, and as a building gets older the rate goes up," he said.

He also pointed out that rates on some buildings are raised by the presence of garages or other buildings where the danger of fire is greater. He advised compliance with the recommendations of the Inspection Bureau to reduce rates by making individual hazards fewer.

Gabbert was associated with Reed & Harvey of Kansas City in a suit brought against the interurban company by the promoters of the Interstate Interurban Company, who alleged that the Kansas City company had unlawfully obtained a part of the right of way which had been secured by the Interstate. The suit was compromised and it is said that an attorney's fee of $62,500 was allowed. Gabbert claims that half of the fee is due him.

COLLEGE BRINGS FAMOUS ACTORS

SHAKESPEARE PLAYHOUSE TROUPE WILL PRESENT PLAYS.

HAS A BRILLIANT CAST

Performances Will be Given Afternoon and Evening, June 22, in College Auditorium.

Frank McEntee, with a company of well known Shakespearean players, will appear in Maryville next Wednesday, June 22, at the college auditorium. The company, containing some of the leading exponents of the Shakespearean play, is on tour from the Shakespeare Playhouse of New York. Their visit here was secured by President Ira Richardson as one of the big features of the summer term at the State Teachers College.

The company will give a matinee and an evening performance. The two plays will be picked from "Twelfth Night," "Hamlet," "The Merchant of Venice," "As You Like It" and "Romeo and Juliet."

"Mr. McEntee was associated with Ben Greet as a partner and leading player when the latter first brought his company to America," the Minneapolis News says of him. "Later he organized the Shakespeare Playhouse, which gives special performances of Shakespearean plays at the leading New York theaters with all-star casts. He is credited with doing more to keep the great bard alive on Broadway than any other one person."

Mr. McEntee is building up in New York a Shakespeare Playhouse which all the best players suited for Shakespeare in the country may have an opportunity to do their best work. He has now over one hundred such palyers directly or indirectly associated with him. He has, during recent seasons, appeared in the East as Hamlet, Shylock, Malvolio, Touchstone, Prospero, Bottom, Petruchio, Brutus, etc.

The following sketches are of other prominent members of the cast which will appear here:

Agnes Elliot Scott—Succeeded Edith Wynne Matthison in the original Ben Greet Company, playing leads for several seasons; then leading woman with Robert Mantell, and in the Northampton Repertory and St. Louis Little Theatre; appeared at Medea in the Shakespeare Playhouse performances given under the auspices of the Building of Arts at Bar Harbor.

Elsie Herndon Kearns—Now playing some of the leading parts with Walter Hampden; for several seasons at the head of her own company in Shakespeare, Ibssen and Macterlinck; was in the original cast of the New Theatre; played Jessica in the Shakespeare Playhouse New York production of "The Merchant of Venuice."

Ernest Rowan—Played with William Faversham in his production of Julius Caesar, appearing as Cassius; played Orlando and Orinso in the Shakespeare Playhouse performances of "As You Like It" and Twelfth Night; now leading man with Walter Hampden at the Broadhurst Theatre.

P. J. Kelly—For seven years a prominent player with Sothern and Marlowe; one of the original Irish players at the Abbey Theatre, Dublin under Synge; featured here last season in Shaw's O'Flaherty V. C.; now playing a wide range of roles with Walter Hampden; was a valuable member of the casts in the Shakespeare Playhouse productions of Hamlet, Macbeth, As You Like It, and Julius Caesar.

MUSICAL TENANTS CHARGE LANDLADY HORSEWHIPPED THEM

Detroit, June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. John Barsby lived in a fashionable apartment house, where the rules forbade music of any kind. The Barsbys observed this regulation implicitly, except for a life, a xylophone, a bass viol and a phonograph.

Mrs. Barsby holds that such a trival lapse is no jurification for a horsewhipping. Accordingly she haled Mrs. Lillie White into court on an assault and battery charge.

Mrs. White is manager of the non-musical apartment house. She is alleged to have done the horsewhipping, employing Mr. and Mrs. Barsby as her targets. Mrs. Barsby told the Judge she and her husband were ordered to move because of the fife, xylophone, base viol and Phonograph. When they suggested a refund on their rent Mrs. White came to bat with her horsewhip it was charged.

Mrs. White said that it was only a small dogwhip and that she had done nothing more violent than flourish it. The barrage of the musical battery disturbed the rest of her tenants, she said, and because of that she decided to evict the Barbys. Mrs. White was found guilty. Sentence was suspended.

Passenger Traffic Is Light.

Passenger traffic on the Burlington was never known to be so small, the trains frequently going through with not more than a half dozen passengers. If it wasn't for the mail and express they haul they would have to unhitch and go to the barn. Put the rates down to where they belong, two cents per mile, and maybe the passenger traffic would help some.—Pickering item in Hopkins Journal.

HAVE DIRT ROADS ROGRAM READY

RECOMMENDATIONS TO LEGISLATURE BY THE FARMERS

NOT TO SELL THE BONDS

The Federation of Commercial Clubs Would Have State Use the "Available Funds."

Jefferson City, June 17.—A dirt road program was presented last night at the convention of farmers held under the auspices of the Missouri Federation of Commercial Clubs. All congressional districts except the fifth (Jackson County) were represented at the convention, composed mostly of men with tanned faces and calloused hands.

The proposed program, presented as recommendations to the legislature on the 60 million dollar road bond issue, would prevent the use of cement for state roads until cement reaches $1.55 a barrel.

That would prevent the use of cement for the building of culverts until the price is reduced.

Advisory Powers to Court.

County courts would be given advisory powers in location and construction of roads. The state highway commission would have sixteen members.

The commercial clubs, known as the Kelso-Donlin organization, would have the state not sell the road bonds, but hold them and use available funds to build roads. The result would be that the state would be no better off for road money than now, and would be out the expense of printing the bonds.

The chief recommendations in the resolutions are:

That the legislature is under a "moral obligation" to spend the 60 million dollars on six thousand miles or on two cross-county roads. It should adopt a system of cross-county or inter-county seat roads.

That the legislature enact a special provision to require an annual expenditure in each county.

That the only permanent road is the road that is maintained.

Define Hard Surface Road.

That the legislature define hard surface roads "so that the same may not be interpreted to prevent the grading, draining, dragging and oiling of earth roads preparatory of graveling, macadamizing, paving or otherwise improving same."

Gradual building of hard surface roads.

That the state finance road building by holding its own bonds and not selling them.

A state highway commission cooperating with county courts in location, type and construction.

A highway commission free from partisan or sectional politics and and representing various sections of the state.

That the commission be composed of one person from each of the congregational districts, one-half to be "dirt farmers," and serve without compensation.

Urges congress to oppose the Townsend bill.

That "no cement be used in the construction of any highways in the state until the state is able to purchase cement at a price not to exceed $1.55 a barrel."

Seek a Consolidation.

At a morning session the Missouri Farmers Association, known as the Hirth-Hudson organization, which has tought for dirt roads, was invited to sit with the commercial club delegates. A consolidation of the two organizations to fight those advocating a hard surface system of roads is expected.

The Federation of Missouri Farm Bureaus, probably the most powerful farmers' organization in the state, has not joined the two dirt road associations. The farm bureaus stand for a state system and are not far apart with the hard surface road advocates.

Engineer to Come Soon to Make Estimate on Cost—Mass Meeting Will Be Called.

The following is from the Skidmore News:

The city council has again brought up the question of a water system for Skidmore. It is now possible to vote sufficient bonds to handle the project it is thought, provided the citizens of the town want it, and sentiment seems to be very favorable.

Mr. Burke, a representative of the E. T. Carter Co. of Kansas City met with the council last evening and explained the proposition which that company offers. He was not, of course, in a position to make an estimate on the cost, but he assured the council that a sufficient amount of bonds could be voted to handle the deal.

An engineer from the E. T. Carter Co. will be here within a few days and after making a preliminary survey, will give an estimate on the cost of installing a system.

There is a considerable amount of preliminary work to be done before a bond election can be called; and before any step of a legal nature is taken, a mass meeting will be held, when the proposition will be explained and the engineer's estimate announced.

AUSTRALIAN MEZZO-SOPRANO WILL SING AT CHAUTAUQUA

Miss Carmen Pascova Called "Most Attractive Opera Singer Appearing Before American Public

New York City, June 17.—Miss Carmen Pascova, the noted Austrian mezzo-soprano of the Chicago Opera Association, who has been in New York since the close of the grand opera season purchasing an extensive wardrobe and otherwise preparing for her first American tour, started for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where she makes her first appearance, last night.

During the summer months Miss Pascova will sing in more than fifty Western cities. She will be one of the star attractions on the Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua Circuit and will appear in Maryville on the fourth day of the Chautauqua, next August.

This pretty Australian diva had a very flattering honor thrust upon her toward the close of last season. She was selected as, "The most attractive opera singer now appearing before the American public," by a celebrated Scandinavian sculptor and, as a result, was the most talked of member of Mary Garden's great opera company; not even barring Mary herself. Miss Pascova's picture was printed in thousands of newspapers and magazines throughout the world and on the Chicago company's recent tour she was much sought after by society leaders and newspaper reporters.

Miss Pascova is a stately blonde beauty with a voice of translucent loveliness. She already has a big following in the United States and great things are predicted for her. During the young singer's visit here she was entertained by several of New York's most distinguished social queens.

MARYVILLE FOLKS VISITED JONES' STABLES AT PARNELL.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles T. Bell and son, Charles, Jr., Mrs. T. L. According to The Parnell Sentinel, the Doctor is a great admirer of horses and the evening was spent in driving over the Jones farm to see the "baby" racers with their mothers in the pastures, the sires in their paddocks, and looking over the training barn. There several good horses are in training and the last year's crop of yearlings are being broken and prepared for the coming year. The party were dinner guests that evening of Mrs. Jones and Mrs. B.
